SIX AND TEN CENTS

The Poor Public Will Have to Pay for Bread in This City Beginning With This Morning—Local Bakers Raised Price.

The price of bread has gone up in Maysville. Beginning with this morning the five cent loaf of bread will have disappeared and replaced by six cent and ten cent loaves.

During the meeting of the National Bakers' Association at Chicago during the past week all bakers were urged to raise the price of bread to ten cents a loaf. In a great many places throughout the country the price has been raised some time ago but the Maysville bakers have kept the price down as long as possible. The record breaking prices for wheat has so increased the price of flour that the bakers are unable to make the five cent loaf any longer.

The Diener Bakery will discontinue their wholesale business and sell bread only at their store on Market street. The McNamara and Traxel Bakeries will continue their wholesale deliveries. All however will sell the six and ten cent loaves.

ASPHIXIATED

SQUIRE S. T. FARROW OVERCOME BY SEWER GAS

Prominent Contractor Meets Death Suddenly Saturday Morning While Inspecting Sewer at the Foot of Government Street—Heroic Attempts to Save Life.

Mr. Samuel Tully Farrow, prominent contractor of this city met death suddenly Saturday morning about 11 o'clock when he was overcome by sewer gas while inspecting a sewer at the foot of Government street.

There being some little controversy over the size of the postoffice sewer emptying into the main sewer at this point Mr. Farrow decided to investigate. Mr. Huff, the postoffice custodian, was of the opinion that the outlet was six inches in diameter but Mr. Farrow was of a different opinion. Deciding to investigate the matter, he had the manhole at this point opened and entered. The hole is about fifteen feet deep. When Mr. Farrow had descended a short distance he fell from the ladder as if in a faint. One of his workers, Stanley Green, a colored man, descended to rescue him, but was also overcome by the fumes of the gas and had to be drawn out himself. The negro suffered no inconvenience from the gas except at first. An ice hook was used to raise the leg of the asphyxiated man, around which a rope was thrown and he was hauled to the surface. Dr. A. O. Taylor was summoned and although he worked heroically the spark of life had fled.

Mr. Samuel Tully Farrow was born in Mt. Gilead, Mason county, July 23, 1858, and was 58 years of age at the time of his death. He was a graduate of Antioch College and the Cincinnati Law School. Although a learned scholar, having graduated with high honors from the latter school, he did not practice law for any length of time but returned to the home of his parents and worked on the farm for a number of years. In 1902 he became a partner in a contracting firm and two years later moved to this city where he has lived since. He served two years as magistrate of the county.

In April, 1882, he was married to Miss Ella Vanden. To them were born seven children, five of whom survive: Mrs. M. J. Guilfoyle, Mrs. Charles Sweet, Clarke Farrow, Madeline Farrow and James Farrow. He is also survived by his mother, one sister, Mrs. L. T. Gaebeke, and two brothers, Messrs. R. C. and C. H. Farrow.

Mr. Farrow was probably one of the most well liked men in the county and numbered his friends by the scores. Bluff, hearty, he had a good word for all and was always willing to help some one. He was a member of the local orders of Redmen and Elks.

The funeral will be held this afternoon from his late home on East Front street under the auspices of the Elks. Burial will be made in the Maysville Cemetery.

TO SPEAK AT COURT HOUSE

Mr. A. W. McKeand of the McKeand Service Co. of Indianapolis, Ind., the man who organized the Chamber of Commerce last November in this city, will arrive today to look over the conditions in the organization and will speak tonight at the Court House at 7:30 o'clock. All the members of the Chamber of Commerce are urged to attend and all others wishing to hear Mr. McKeand are urged to attend if possible.

THE LAMB CROP

R. O. Chambers finished the lamb buying season last week in this section and during the period of buying he took from the farmers of Mason and Robertson counties 12,000, at an average price $7 per head, distributing among the growers the nice sum of $84,000. This industry seems to be growing every year, and before long it will be one of the leaders.

SOME PERSIMMONS

Ex-Councilman George C. Fleming last week received from a relative in Texas two fullgrown persimmons that are certainly premium takers. They were as large as the average size tomato, as red and smooth as they could be and their flavor for excellence the Kentucky variety. If persimmons grow like that in this state they would be worth cultivating.

NOTICE

The members of the B. P. O. Elks are requested to meet at the Elk Home this afternoon at 1 o'clock to attend the funeral of their late brother, Mr. Sam T. Farrow.
DR. J. A. DODSON, Exalted Ruler.
W. B. Smith, Secretary.

LEAVES FOR CLEVELAND

Mr. James January left Saturday for Cleveland, Ohio, where he has accepted a position with the Benjamin Moore Co., makers of fine paints and varnishes. Quite a number of Maysville boys are working with this concern and all are making good.

SMALL FIRE

A small fire occurred Saturday afternoon in the garage of Judge A. M. J. Cochran in the rear of his residence on West Third street. The fire was soon extinguished. This was the first run of the fire department in several weeks.

WANTED

Anyone having copies of Thursday's Ledger will confer a favor on us by bringing them to this office at once.

FINED $200

Jury Changes Charge From Voluntary to Involuntary Manslaughter and Places That Fine on Ben Middleman.

In the Mason Circuit Court late Saturday afternoon the jury in the case of Ben Middleman, indicted for manslaughter in the death of George Hendrickson, returned a verdict of guilty of involuntary manslaughter and placed his fine at $200. The jury was out almost three hours. The fine was promptly paid and the young man released.

In January 1915, Hendrickson and his father had Middleman to do some hauling for him of heavy machinery. The two latter called at the office of Middleman and there the two men engaged in a quarrel in regards to the price to be paid for the work done. Young Middleman thinking that George Hendrickson was also about to get in the scrap run around the office and coming in the rear door struck Hendrickson over the head with a single tree. Hendrickson later died at Haywood Hospital from a fracture of the skull.

Hon. A. D. Cole and Hon. J. M. Collins were the attorneys for the defendant and Hon. B. S. Grannis and Judge Sam Pugh were the prosecuting lawyers. This case was tried before the May term of court but the jury could not agree and so the case had to be retried in this term of court.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC PRICE OF BREAD IS RAISED

For over a quarter of a century we have been making bread for the people at 5 cents per loaf, but because of continued increases in flour we are compelled to raise the price to 6 and 10 cents a loaf.

Although it is not generally known, it is a fact that we have been making bread for some time at an actual loss, and for this reason the raise has become necessary.

Should the price of flour go down so will the price of our bread.
